

Watterson, a Highview Company, Appoints Julie McCollum as Chief Financial Officer

SCHAUMBURG, ILLINOIS, May 17, 2023 - Watterson, a leading national facility services company and a portfolio company of Highview Capital, recently announced the appointment of Julie McCollum to the position of Chief Financial Officer. In addition to her three decades of analytical experience, McCollum brings to the company her Merger and Acquisition expertise that will allow the company to flourish. McCollum is also a CHIEF member and an avid community volunteer.

"Julie brings to Watterson a wealth of experience in strategic finance and high-growth environments," said Steve Peldiak, CEO of Watterson.

"It is our pleasure to have Julie join our team as we continue to grow and expand our solutions through recent acquisitions and new verticals," said Peldiak. "Her skills and insight will help us continue on our growth path and make strategic decisions that ensure our financial success."

Having previously held senior roles in finance, accounting, and operations in the commercial sector for companies such as Diverzify and OpenWorks, McCollum brings an impressive background to Watterson. McCollum's deep understanding of the construction and facilities markets and post-acquisition company growth will help Watterson set the formidable foundation for strong revenue and continued expansion.
